Women Making A Powerful Difference – S.A.V.Y’ s Co-Founders, Honored As “Unsung Heroes In The Community”

November 2007 – New York, NY – On November 10, 2007 Ebony Magazine and the makers of Pine-Sol cleaners will host their fourth Sisterspeak Luncheon of 2007 at the Marriott Marquis, New York, NY. The luncheon series celebrates the unique sisterhood of African-American women.

Co-Founder, Executive Director Kimberly Nichols and Co-Founder Theda Rose are among the recipients being honored. Nichols and Rose were recognized for their commitment to making a difference in the lives of young women through Successful and Victorious Youth – S.A.V.Y, a nonprofit youth development organization committed to inspiring young women to reach their full potential and motivating them towards excellence.

The honorees received a grant from the makers of Pine-Sol cleaners to aid in their continuation of extraordinary work.
